Kennedy Plans to Study Over Appointments

By RELMAN MORIN

HYANNIS PORT, Mass. (AP)—A personal message from British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan was delivered this morning to President-elect John F. Kennedy at his Hyannis Port home.

D'Arcy Edmondson, British consul general in Boston, brought the message personally, but there was no immediate indication of the contents.

Macmillan previously had sent his congratulations to Kennedy, a customary formality between heads of government. Therefore, it was assumed that the communication concerned matters of high foreign policy. It was reported that Macmillan, along with several other heads of European governments, expected to confer personally with Kennedy within the next few months.

Kennedy prepared to leave by air for Palm Beach, Fla., for a two-week vacation.

He had with him a list of several hundred names for consideration for appointments in his administration. Kennedy said Thursday at his first news conference that he expected to have his cabinet complete "in late November or early December."

His press secretary, Pierre Salinger, said the president-elect has received 13,000 congratulatory telegrams in the past 24 hours.

Kennedy was to take three of his top assistants with him to Florida. They were Kenneth O'Donnell, named as special assistant to the president; Lawrence

Information Agency Chief Quitting

WASHINGTON (AP)—George V. Allen, veteran of high diplomatic posts and now director of the U.S. Information Agency, is leaving government service to become president of the Tobacco Institute.

Bowman Gray, chairman of the executive committee of the organization of tobacco manufacturers, announced the election of Allen today and said he will take over at the institute's Washington headquarters Dec. 1.

Allen will succeed James P. Richards, former congressman from South Carolina, first president of the institute which was organized in 1958.

Gray said Richards served notice early this year that he wishes to return to law practice in his home state.

Viet Nam Rule Changes in a Bloody Riot

By HA VAN TRAN

SAIGON (AP)—Paratrooper battalions overthrew President Ngo Dinh Diem today in a brief but bloody battle before dawn. The rebels set up a military regime pledged to strengthen the nation's fight against Communist infiltration and end the rule of the Diem family.

Between 20 and 30 persons were killed and many others were wounded in sharp fighting between the rebel battalions and troops loyal to Diem. But by 8 p. m. calm prevailed in the capital. Armored units rolled into the city from My Tho 75 miles to the south, in answer to a call from the president—but they joined the rebels.

The rebel military committee which took over the government was headed by paratrooper Col. Nguyen Khanh Thi. It claimed the full support of the army, navy and air force and said it had formed a temporary government.

No casualties were reported among the several thousand Americans in the country as military or civilian advisers to the Diem government.

The bachelor president, 59, a dedicated anti-Communist whose dictatorial methods and family finances had often come under fire, was reported alive inside the palace.

There was no word of the president's brother, Ngo Dinh Nhu, or his wife, who were Diem's closest advisers, lived in the palace with him, and have been considered the powers behind the president.

The rebel military committee in a broadcast announcing the ouster of the pro-American president, charged:

"Ngo Dinh Diem adopted a family dictatorship and was unable to face the situation which has deteriorated because of mounting Communist danger. The army has been divided and the population is without any freedom."

There was absolutely no indication that the army rebels contemplated a neutralist policy, as neighboring Laos has just adopted. The new military junta said in a broadcast it had no political affiliations and had seized control of the government "to re-establish security in the country."

Sharing borders with neutralist Cambodia and Laos South Viet Nam is a cornerstone of the Western defense arch in Southeast Asia. The South Vietnamese army of 120,000 men is supported by U.S. aid funds. There was no immediate comment from the U.S. Embassy in Saigon.

Nixon Carried 20 Arkansas Counties

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Vice President Richard M. Nixon carried 20 Arkansas counties including some that had remained Democratic in the 1952 and 1956 elections when President Eisenhower made inroads in the state.

The 20 were: Baxter, Benton, Boone, Carroll, Clay, Craighead, Crawford, Fulton, Garland, Independence, Madison, Montgomery, Newton, Polk, Randolph, Sevier, Sebastian, Sharp, Stone and Washington.

Pulaski County (Little Rock) returned to the Democratic fold after voting Republican in 1956.

The count, with only 1,075 of the nation's 16,078 voting units unreported: Kennedy 33,567,212, Vice President Richard M. Nixon 33,208,995.

The revisions, minor in relation to the record total, had no effect on the electoral vote outcome.

Kennedy had 300 votes, well above the required 209, and held a thin lead for 32 more in California. The California outcome will be determined by the count of more than 200,000 absentee ballots next week.

Nixon had 108 and a lead for 3 more in Alaska with a few dozen remote polling places unreported.

Thomas F. Day of Hope was injured about 9 a. m. today when the auto which he was driving collided with another driven by Amilee Bowie at Main and Third Streets.

Day suffered a nose injury and a lacerated knee. He was rushed to a local hospital by a Herndon-Cornelius ambulance. His condition is not considered serious.

Officers said Day was making a left turn on a green light and collided almost head-on with the other vehicle. Both were heavily damaged.

Investigating Officers, Clark Ward and Chief Brown, charged Day with failure to yield the right of way.

Popular Vote Lead Grows Much Thinner

WASHINGTON (AP)—Trickling late returns from Tuesday's election cut Sen. John F. Kennedy's popular vote lead down today to 278,277 out of nearly 70 million ballots tabulated. That gave his 50.2 per cent of the total.

Angry Settlers Battle Police in Algiers Riot

By DAVID MASON

ALGIERS (AP)—Angry European settlers fought off tear gas attacks, stoned police, wrecked buses and attacked the United States Information Center in a bloody anti-De Gaulle riot here today.

Almost all the demonstrators were students and youngsters. About two score were injured. Thousands hurled stones, tomatoes or whatever was at hand.

The U. S. cultural center was stormed by the demonstrators after several hours of pitched battles in nearby streets. The center was sacked, once before during the turbulent days of 1959, and has been the target of right wingers in lesser demonstrations on many occasions. Initial reports mentioned no injuries there this time nor was there any word as to what damage was done to the center.

The temper of the European demonstrators mounted toward the boiling point as French President Charles de Gaulle's civilian chief in Algeria Paul Delouvrier, drove through the Boulevard Pasteur to lay a wreath at the monument for war dead.

"The crowd shouted, 'Resign!' and 'De Gaulle to the stakes!'" Delouvrier laid his wreath without interference, however. The violence came after he drove off.

Anger has mounted among Algeria's militant French settlers since De Gaulle in a broadest sense a week ago, promised that the North African territory would no longer be governed by Metropolitan France but would have "its own government, its own institutions, its own laws."

The settlers generally interpreted De Gaulle's words to mean an Algerian republic in which they would be overwhelmed by the Muslim majority.

Paris newspapers reported Thursday De Gaulle may soon proclaim Algeria a republic in a bold move to liquidate the fostering six-year-old nationalist rebellion.

Thursday night a crowd of about 1,000 demonstrators, in an Armistice Eve wreath ceremony at the war dead monument clashed with security forces. Several persons were injured by police clubs.

Thomas F. Day of Hope was injured about 9 a. m. today when the auto which he was driving collided with another driven by Amilee Bowie at Main and Third Streets.

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Revenue and Taxation Committee of the Arkansas Legislative Council has asked the state Chamber of Commerce and the Arkansas Industry Association to draft detailed sales tax exemption amendments and present them to the committee for study.

Committee members told representatives of the two agencies Thursday that the main problem in amending such laws is wording the amendments so that they will not open the gate to wholesale business tax evasions.

Business interests have long been working for a change in exemptions in the state use and state sales taxes. The two taxes, amount for about $50 million in revenue annually, the bulk coming from the three per cent sales tax.

Department Store Sales Decline

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Department store sales in the Eighth Federal Reserve District fell seven per cent the week ended Nov. 5 compared to levels of a year ago.

The Louisville area had a 20 per cent drop. Memphis was down 14 per cent. Sales in seven smaller district cities fell eight per cent. Little Rock declined four per cent and the St. Louis area dropped two per cent.

District sales for the four weeks ended Nov. 5 were three per cent below those of the similar period last year.

Sales to date were virtually the same as those of last year at this time.

Showdown on Integration in Louisiana

NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP)—An integration showdown loomed in Louisiana today as Gov. Jimmie H. Davis and U.S. Dist. Judge J. Skelly Wright maneuvered like military strategists in a day of lightning developments.

Wright issued a temporary restraining order Thursday prohibiting state interference with New Orleans schools and banning enforcement of the state's new package of school segregation laws passed in a 12-day special session that recessed last Tuesday.

Davis in a surprise move late Thursday night countered by calling a second session to convene 30 days starting Tuesday—the day the Legislature returns to end its current session.

Davis a singer of hillbilly songs who took office six months ago on a platform of "peace and harmony," used the same broad language as in his first call.

He said the next session would deal with schools states rights education and protection of public order. Omitted this time was any reference to a state militia.

Previously, a member of a state committee appointed to seize control of the schools speculated it might be necessary to call another special session to put the full weight of the Legislature behind the committee's actions.

Within hours after Wright signed the temporary restraining orders the New Orleans School Board okayed admission of five Negro first grade girls into two of the city's all-white schools.

Thomas F. Day of Hope was injured about 9 a. m. today when the auto which he was driving collided with another driven by Amilee Bowie at Main and Third Streets.

Legal Action to Be Filed by State Leaders

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Republican National Committee today asked party officials in 11 states to start legal action that might lead to a recount of votes in the presidential election.

The committee said it was acting on the basis of thousands of complaints of frauds in the balloting in the states that gave Sen. John F. Kennedy a narrow victory over Vice President Richard M. Nixon on the basis of unofficial returns.

A committee aid said Nixon an dCommitee Chairman "Philo" B. Morton conferred at length this morning before deciding to act on the complaints.

Telegrams were sent to state and county chairmen in Delaware, Illinois, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Nevada, New Mexico, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, South Carolina and Texas.

Ward of the U-S itself move came out after Morton himself had told a reporter about it in lesser detail. He put his stress on Illinois and Texas.

Morton said chairmen had been asked to make a recalc because he believes there is "a chance for human error in such a election."

Republican state officials were asked "to take any necessary action to determine specific complaints and file them with the local U.S. attorney's office so that we can proceed with the investigation of these reports."

State laws covering recount procedures vary, but no recount can be ordered except on the basis of a specific complaint, the committee explained.

An official said the Republican organization in Cook County, Ill., has already $25,000 to cover the cost of recounting 5,000 Chicago precincts that gave Kennedy a big majority. Kennedy only carried the state by about 5,000 votes of the 4 1/2 million cast.

A committee spokesman said 3,000 to 4,000 telegrams have been received at headquarters in Washington, and as many more had gone to Nixon's office.

The committee said telegrams came in from every state but investigations were going to be pressed only where the most serious charges had been made.

Kennedy Plans

O'Brien, political adviser, and Salingler.
Kennedy's vacation schedule includes a conference in Texas with Vice President-elect Lyndon B.
Johnson.
There were indications that he might ask President Eisenhower and Vice President Richard M.
Nixon to shoulder important responsibilities in the incoming government.
And Adlai E. Stevenson, twice Democratic candidate for president, appeared to be in his plans somewhere. Considerable speculation has centered on the possibility that Stevenson might be the next secretary of state.

Kennedy was moving ahead full-throttle with the business of government, barely 48 hours after winning the presidential election.
He announced that two super-important positions already are filled—by requesting the incumbents to remain in office.
They are Allen W. Dulles, head of the Central Intelligence Agency and J. Edgar Hoover, chief of the Federal Bureau of Investigation.
Both agreed to stay.
As to other possible appointments, Kennedy said this in his first news conference as president-elect.
Q. (On Eisenhower)—"You told President Eisenhower that you hoped his long experience could be drawn on further in the years to come. Have you anything specifically in mind?"
A. "I have some thoughts, but I thought I would wait until I talked to him about it."
Q. (On Nixon)—"Is there any possibility that you might ask him to serve?"
A. "I would rather talk with him before I would say anything.
I think we ought—I don't know what he is planning to do."

Q. (On Stevenson)—"Do you plan to give a major role in your administration to Adlai Stevenson?"
A. "I talked to Gov. Stevenson yesterday on the matter of—I would prefer to postpone until I come back to the whole question of roles appointments responsibilities."

Kennedy also announced that he has named Clark Clifford Washington lawyer, to be his representative as liaison with the Eisenhower administration during the period between now and the day he takes office. Clifford served as special counsel to former President Truman.

He assigned four members of his personal staff to duty in the White House.
They are: Pierre Salinger, former San Francisco newspaperman, political manager, and one-time piano student, to be White House press secretary. Salinger now lives in Falls Church, Va.
Andrew Hatcher, of San Francisco, official of the California

State Labor Commission, to be assistant press secretary. Hatcher is a Negro.
To be special assistant, he named Kenneth O'Donnell, of Worcester, Mass. O'Donnell was a key man in the team of advisors who worked with Kennedy during the presidential campaign.
Theodore Sorenson, of Lincoln, Neb., to be special counsel to the president. Kennedy said Sorenson has "worked with me in policy matters for the past eight years."
For a special study of federal regulatory agencies, Kennedy asked James M. Landis of New York to submit a report. Landis is former dean of the Harvard Law School. Kennedy said the Landis study is being undertaken with a view to maximizing the effective dispatch of their (the agencies) business. He said the first report would be submitted by Dec. 15.

The president-elect said he hopes to nominate appointees for all cabinet posts by "late November or early December."
He made this statement in answer to a question as to whether the name of the incoming secretary of state would be announced before Dec. 1.

Kennedy said he would break his vacation next week to fly to Johnson City, Texas for a conference with Sen. Johnson.
He has talked with Johnson by telephone several times since the election. A reliable informant said Johnson made "two good suggestions which will be adopted."

Sources close to Kennedy indicated that, as vice president, Johnson would be given important assignments and that he would be consulted on a wide range of questions. It is generally believed that Johnson will play as big and perhaps a bigger role, than Nixon played in the Eisenhower administration.

On related matters, Kennedy said:
1. He hopes to meet Eisenhower in Washington some time this month, after his vacation, and depending on the President's schedule.
2. He replied to Soviet Premier

Khrushchev's message telling Khrushchev "a just and lasting peace will remain a fundamental task of his nation and a major task of his president."

3. He is in good physical condition. "I have never had Addison's disease. I have been through a long campaign and my health is very good today."
4. He has not discussed with his brothers whether they will play any part in his administration. It is known on good authority that Robert Kennedy, who was his campaign manager, would like to serve in government but has made no decision as to where,
if at all, he will take office.
5. He will resign his Senate seat in December. He said it is Massachusetts Gov. Foster Fairbanks' responsibility to fill it, but he hopes to have a chance to talk with him about the matter. Fairbanks is a Democrat.

Asks Court to Okay Sale

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — U.S. District Court has been asked to approve sales of 40 acres of the Mississippi County farmland belonging to Andrew and George Florida of Osceola.

The land has been transferred to Thomas P. Florida who asked court permission for the sale Wednesday as partial security for loans he obtained for his brothers from a Memphis bank.

The properties of Andrew and George Florida are in receivership pending settlement of an $11 million federal tax claim and all sales must be approved by the court.

Fashion Harmony in Dress and Car Top

Something new in high fashion for the American woman who wants a personalized car—a dress created by Pedro Rodriguez, the celebrated Spanish couturier, and his suggestion for a matching top on a '61 Buick convertible. The dress is one of a collection with designs for interchangeable, harmonious snap-on tops by leading couturiers in Paris, Rome, Dublin, London and Madrid and shown in a high-fashion preview in New York. This dress is in exotic polka dots of delicately puckered silk marquisette, each dot ruched in a different color. The convertible top is a magnified version of the dress fabric and was executed by Buick craftsmen in hand-stitched gold thread.

DOROTHY DIX

Unforeseen Results of Hoax

BY HELEN WORDEN ERSKINE

Dear Helen:
Some months ago, out of sheer loneliness, I sent two unsigned letters to a girl friend, not thinking of the consequences.

She ignored the first but the second she showed around, hoping to find the writer. The husband of one of the girls to whom she showed it came to her house, accused her of writing it herself and called her a mental case. He also said rather cruel things to the girl's mother. There was no argument because this man had been a mental case himself.

Before I admitted to her, through a priest, that I had written the letter, she showed it to her minister. He told her to forget it. I don't think that has been easy for her. Because of me, she lost two friends. Because of the man, she has not spoken to these two girls since. He told her they wanted nothing more to do with her.

I want to tell these girls why I did this, but my girl friend doesn't want me to. She says if they believe she wrote the letters, they are not friends. I don't wish to hurt her any more than I already have but I would like to straighten this out. She has been very forgiving towards me. I don't think I could find a better or more generous friend, in spite of everything. What can I do to make amends—Repentant Mary? Dear Repentant Mary: By all means tell the two "friends" the truth and clear your girl friend's name. Perhaps your priest would help you. Ask him.

Dear Helen:
My husband and I both read your column daily. It is rare that we do not agree with your advice. For this very reason I am prompted to ask you to help us now.

I have a hateful habit of not talking to my husband when he makes me mad. He knows how I am. Just a little apology on his part would clear the sky. But he refuses and, as a result, we sometimes go for days without speaking. I've repeatedly told him how it could be overcome but still he refuses to apologize. There was a time when, right or wrong, I did apologize, but no more. My husband is the quiet type. He doesn't find kind words and compliments easy to come by.

I admit I'm stubborn, but I am also sensitive and affectionate. My husband's complete indifference to my need for affection is tearing us apart. I'm about to call it quits. I am making one more attempt to save the day in writing this letter. I will take your advice and hope my husband will do the same.

If I am to blame, don't hesitate to tell me. We are two unhappy people who love each other very much. —K. O. B.

Dear K. O. B.: This problem is workable if for no other reason

State Escapees Are Recaptured

HOT SPRINGS, ARK. (AP) —

Two men who escaped from the Garland County Jail on Oct. 29 have been arrested at Trueman, N. M., Sheriff Leonard Ellis was notified today.

Two others who fled at the same time are still at large.

The two were listed as Claude Hughes, 23, and Fred Branch, 19, who were being held for burglary and grand larceny.

Ellis said the men would face federal charges of interstate car theft.

Earlier a state policeman had speculated that two of the fugitives may have left this area on horseback.

Broyles Fearful SMU Will Be All Fired Up

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — Arkansas begins what it hopes is a two-game countdown to the Cotton Bowl tomorrow in a Southwest Conference battle with improving Southern Methodist.

Razorback coach Frank Broyles is afraid the Mustangs, 0-0-1 for the season, will come to the Ozarks fired up at the thought of spoiling Arkansas' championship hopes.

With only one loss on their league record all the Porks have to do is beat SMU and Texas Tech their Nov. 19 opponent, to get the bowl berth. Rice can tie the Hogs for the championship but Arkansas would get the bid since it beat the Owls last week 3-0 on Mickey Cissell's last-minute field goal.

The Mustangs played Texas A&M to a scoreless tie last week after losing to Texas 17-7 two weeks ago. Broyles says this proves coach Bill Meek's crew is improving and stands a good chance of upsetting the Hogs. But Arkansas still was favored by 15 points.

A capacity crowd of 31,000 is expected for the 2 p.m. kickoff in perfect football weather.

The game-time forecast called for partly cloudy and cool with temperatures in the low 50s and winds 4 to 18 miles per hour southwesterly.

The Mustangs fly to Muskogee Okla. today where they will spend tonight. Then they'll fly to Fayetteville just before the game.

The Razorbacks scheduled a light workout today.

Each team has four key men injured but all are expected to see some action. On the Razorback part-time list are fullbacks Joe Paul Alberly and Curtis Cox, end Les Letsinger and tackle Red Henderson.

The Mustangs pin their offensive hopes on quarterback Frank Jackson, who has led the team in rushing and passing this season with 163 yards on the ground and 171 in the air. His chief receiver is Billy Polk who has caught five for 76 yards.

SMU has scored only 21 points in seven games but the Mustangs defense has grown progressively stronger, though ruel opposition that included Navy, Rice, Ohio State and Missouri.

The Razorbacks went through a long outdoor workout Thursday for the first time this week and Broyles called it one of the worst of the year.

He said the Hogs didn't know their assignments and looked bad against SMU plays.

Hope Remains Undefeated the Hard Way

Hope's undefeated Junior Bobkittens finished the regular season in a blaze of glory last night but not before undergoing the "scare" of the season.

Camden's Juniors had Hope 12-0 at halftime and only a great backfield saved a third score as time ran out. During the intermission Coach Gordon Reasley must have injected some strong "spirit" into the local boys as they came back, scored two touchdowns and kicked two extra points to win 14 to 12.

Bluff beat Hall so the Zebras would by beating Central, hold ing victories over both the other leader with only weak Hot Springs left on the schedule.

The conference ruled this week that if the top two each lose one game, they will be co-champs.

Hall plays a non - conference game with Jacksonville Camden's Panthers and Benton meet tonight in Benton in a game that will decide the Region 3AA championship. Camden is unbeaten and Benton has lost once but a Benton victory tonight would give the Panthers the crown.

Rogers the 1AA finalist, finished its season unbeaten last week. Camden has sewed up the 4AA championship and ends league play tonight with Magnolia.

In other Big Nine Conference games, North Little Rock is at Fort Smith El Dorado is at Hot Springs and Texarkana is at Blytheville.

Fishing Report Around State

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Here is a fishing forecast from the Arkansas Game and Fish Commission:

Lake Conway: Clear and normal. Bass fair on minnows. Bream fair on crickets and worms. Crappie fair to good on minnows.

Lake Ouachita: Clear and low. Bass fair on artificial bait. Crappie fair on minnows.

Bull Shoals Lake: Bass fair on lazy shiners.

Lakes Norfolk, Catherine, Green and Hamilton: No good fishing.

Bobcats Rest Prepare for Last Pair

Coach Pierce's Hope Bobcats are resting this week with an open date, but they are really becoming determined to win their last two games. The Bobcats surprisingly have very few injuries from last week's moral victory but honorable defeat in a tough game with Conway.

Nov. 18 the Cats play host to Arkadelphia, an old rival. It seems Arkadelphia slipped up when they went out of the 4AA district into the smaller 7A district, because they have one of the best teams in their history this year. They presently lead their district.

The Bobcats have had short workouts this week and have been getting some kinks out of their offense. Guard Junior McNatt is back with the Cats and Pierce expects him to help solve some of his offensive line problems.

FB Joe Matt Herndon should also be back in full power by next week. However, starters, Gilliam,

Moore and Jones are suffering from colds.

Coach Pierce said the attitude of the Cats is finally improving and he added, "I'd really like to win these last two games and I know the boys can if they put out."

Minnesota to Find Purdue a Tough Foe

By JACK CLARY Associated Press Sports Writer

Can Minnesota keep its ranking as the nation's No. 1 team and gain a share of the Big Ten title? Will Washington wind up defending its Rose Bowl and Big Five crown?

These, and a few more important questions regarding conference titles and the like, are going to be answered before the weekend is over as the 1960 college football season hits the crucial stretch-run stage.

The Golden Gophers, atop the football world for the first time in two decades, play Purdue Saturday and a victory will give them at least a tie in the Big Ten race. Minnesota (7-0), top ranked in The Associated Press weekly poll, needs only to beat Wisconsin next Saturday to be king.

Washington, 7-1, and ranked sixth, must beat California (1-6-1) for the Big Five title and a ticket to the Rose Bowl.

Yale (7-0) plays Princeton for what will probably be the Ivy title. Both are 5-0 in league play and are favored in season wind-ups next week against league foes.

Tonight, Virginia Tech, still in the running for the Southern Conference title, plays George Washington. Wichita is at Drake and

Moore and Jones are suffering from colds.

TRIAL BY SLANDER

By Travis Macrae

THE STORY: Night classes have come to an end for Janet Hamilton, a young widow who is working to earn a teaching certificate. She gained a close friendship with her instructor, Dr. Jason Whiting, and at the last meeting of the class he confessed that he was married. Janet hurries away from him to catch the train to her suburban home.

CHAPTER XI

The train lurched, stopped and started until it reached the village. It seemed to her dazed senses as though her car made the trip home from the station on its own. Turning the familiar corner of her driveway, she noticed a dark blue sedan parked off the road to one side.

There were lights ablaze from the entire downstairs. Gerry had a visitor? Or had something happened to Johnny or Bruce? She hurried from the garage into the utility room and on into the kitchen. Then she stopped abruptly.

Gerry's soft laugh echoed from the living room, so there was no trouble. But how appalling that she should have a visitor without asking, tonight of all nights. Janet walked through the dining room and into the hall, the carpet muffling her footsteps. Gerry was laughing wholeheartedly. She sat on the couch, her feet tucked under, listening to the man who sat in an armchair opposite her. The man was Jason. Janet stood still and looked at the cozy tableau. Jason was describing an experience he had had in a hospital at the hands of an inexperienced nurse, and adding, as the incident was finished, that he hoped Gerry would continue her nursing studies.

Gerry nodded her head and caught sight of Janet, still rooted to the floor in the hall. "Oh, I didn't hear you come in, Mrs. Hamilton."

Jason rose to his feet and bowed slightly. "Good evening, Mrs. Hamilton. I do hope I'm not intruding."

Looking at Janet's stony face, Gerry said in alarm, "I hope it was all right. Dr. Whiting told me you'd forgotten some work, and since he was passing by anyhow, he thought he'd stop in and leave it for you. I hope I didn't do wrong," she said lamely, looking from one to the other.

"No, it's quite all right, Gerry."

Janet said. As she said Gerry the girl whispered, "He's awfully nice."

Janet shrugged her shoulders and closed the door.

"What did you tell Gerry?" she asked.

"Just what she said. I could have said that Mrs. Hamilton and I had a little misunderstanding in a drugstore, and that Mrs. Hamilton ran away from me and vanished while I ran up and down the street howling her name into the night to the considerable amusement of a large number of passers-by. I wanted to tell Mrs. Hamilton that my intentions are honorable."

"Jason!"

"I drove up here. At a pretty good clip, too. I thought you might not let me in, and I'd better beat you home."

"And made a lifelong friend of my sister?"

Janet smiled at him in spite of herself.

"Oh, she thinks I'm charming."

He stroked his chin complacently. Janet was shaken. Was this Jason? This confident, urbane man?

"You seem rather a determined fellow," she commented uneasily.

"Yes, I seem to be turning into sort of a male counterpart of What Lola Wants . . . but I do want to talk to you. May I stay a little while, Janet?"

"Yes, of course. I'm glad you're here. I'm sorry I've acted like a fool."

"You should be," he agreed.

"Would you like more coffee or a drink?"

"A drink, please," he answered quickly.

He followed her through the dining room into the kitchen. Taking a tray from the refrigerator, she started getting out ice cubes, glad of something to do with her hands while the words Jason had spoken echoed in her ears. She reached for highball glasses. Jason rose from the stool on which he perched and reached up to the cabinet to help.

His eyes strayed to a shelf over the icebox. "Why in the world do you keep a gun in the kitchen?"

She turned her head. He was grasping a pistol by its barrel, holding it gingerly above his head.

"Oh, I'd forgotten it was there. John collected guns. He put it there when there were some robberies in the neighborhood a cou-

Alworth on List for All American

NEW YORK (AP) — The race for honors in the 1960 All-American basketball is wide open.

Although there are plenty of sound capable candidates, as of now, there are no real standouts.

What happens over the next three Saturdays will go far in determining the men AP's eight regional boards each representing an NCAA district will recommend for the first team.

Here are some of the more prominent candidates:

Jake Gibbs, Mississippi quarterback; Tom Matto, quarterback; and Bob Ferguson, fullback, both of Ohio State; Roman Gabriel, North Carolina State quarterback; Bill Kilmer, UCLA tailback; Joe Bellino, Navy halfback; Ronnie Dill, Baylor halfback; and Pervis Atkins, New Mexico State halfback.

Final determination of the all-America team will not be made until after the games of Nov. 26.

Among other backs who are coming in for close attention are:

Ed Dyes, Auburn fullback; Francis Tarkenton, Georgia quarterback; Tommy Mason, Tulane halfback; Wilburn Hollis, Iowa quarterback; Dave Grosz, Oregon quarterback; Keith Lincoln, Washington State halfback; Terry Baker, Oregon State halfback; Ernie Davis, Syracuse halfback; Tom ple of years ago. Careful. It's probably still loaded."

He replaced the pistol and took the glasses from her. "Don't worry. I'll be careful. A loaded gun and a forocious dog."

Janet smiled, glancing at Brownie, who was curled up in a ball by the back door.

They walked into the living room and sat down on the couch, each concentrating on the drinks on the coffee table.

"What was this toujours gai routine tonight?" Janet asked, striving for a lightness that might set him at ease while, at the home lingered in her mind.

He came over to her and sat down in an armchair by the couch, twirling his glass round and round between his hands before he answered soberly, "When I told you, in the drugstore, that I wanted to talk to you, I had a speech of sorts all prepared. Now I seem to have forgotten it."

He took a deep swallow of his drink.

"Janet, I love you. I hope you will marry me when I am free."

Candidates in Arkansas Home Free

By GORDON BROWN

WASHINGTON (AP)—On the basis of reports filed with the House and Senate to date Arkansas candidates for Congress didn't spend a dime in campaigning.

This isn't particularly surprising since, except for the 6th Congressional district, there wasn't a semblance of a contest.

In the 5th Rep. Dale Alford defeated write-in opponent J. L. Churchill, a Republican.

Under federal law all candidates for the House and Senate must file reports of money they receive and spend in their campaigns.

But committees formed in support of individual candidates are not required to make any accounting to Congress of the funds they handle.

Sen. John L. McClelland and Arkansas' six House Members, all Democrats, were re-elected.

McClelland is the only Arkansas who so far has reported any contributions. He listed $37.50 in miscellaneous contributions which he said he applied to his filing fee.

This is an expense which is exempt from the expenditures limit Congress has placed on candidates — $2,500 for most House members and $10,000 for most Senators.

Reps. Oren Harris, W. F. Nor-

J. E. Cox in Rosston.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Dorris spent Sunday in Longview, Texas as guests of Mrs. Odel Crank and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Grant and daughters of Texarkana were the Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Atkinson and Mrs. Alla Grant.

Mrs. E. B. Johnson was the Saturday guest of her sister, Mrs. George Byrd and Mr. Byrd in Arkadelphia.

Mrs. John Massey of Fordyce was the weekend guest of her daughter, Mrs. Dick Bright and family.

Miss Barbara Moberg has resumed her studies at the U of A after a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Moberg.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Bonds Sr. have returned from Little Rock where they have been patients at the Missouri Pacific Hospital.

reli, James Trimble, E. C. Galkings and Alford reported no contributions and no expenditures except for their filing fees.

At time of the latest compilation, Churchill hadn't reported his personal financing picture.

Rep. Wilbur Mills has filed a report but it has been misplaced somewhere in the office of the House clerk.

A final report from House and Senate candidates is due 30 days after last Tuesday's general election.

Detective Sgt. M. N. Politics, Little Rock, was one of 5 police officers graduating in the 1st class of the FBI National Academy.

It was the 7th class since establishment of the academy.

The students got 12 weeks of intensive and practical training in the latest techniques of law enforcement.

3rd Party Depends, Says Faubus

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The growth or decline of a third-party movement in the South depends on how President-elect John F. Kennedy handles himself in office, Gov. Orval E. Faubus said today.

Faubus said the third party threat remains, although States Rights party electors failed to carry either Arkansas or Louisiana Tuesday, but he added that Kennedy could erase the third party potential if he acts realistically and practically as president.

"The South wants to support Kennedy and (Vice President elect Lyndon B. Johnson) Faubus said, "but it all depends on whether they will let the South support them. It all depends on their policies during the next four years."

Faubus said many Southerners voted for the Democratic nominees with reluctance.

Discussing the possibility that Kennedy might name Sen. J. William Fulbright D-Ark., as his secretary of state Faubus said:

"I find nothing to keep him from it. I don't see anything in the way of choosing a Southerner for a post in the cabinet."

Faubus is considered a possible candidate against Fulbright if the Senator seeks reelection in 1962.

Appointment of Fulbright to a cabinet job would clear the way for Faubus if he plans to run for the Senate.

MEMPHIS (AP)—A hungry prisoners at the Shelby County Jail ate breakfast today and ended a two-day hunger strike, called they said because they didn't get enough meat with their meals.

They ate oatmeal, three slices of bread and a half-cup of coffee.

There were conflicting reports on the number involved in the strike. Sheriff M. A. Hinds said there were only eight but a spokesman for the prisoners said 30 had refused to eat since Tuesday.

"We received promises of better food," Ronald Earl Krieger, 25, said.

"If we don't get it, we're going back on strike in a couple of days," Hinds said all food-fed prisoners is inspected by federal authorities for vitamin and nutritional content.

"These authorities have not rejected any of our menus," the sheriff said.

The strikers rejected Wednesday's dinner meal—Chicken and noodles—by throwing it on a block floor.

They said the noodles were greasy and the chicken just necks.

Heifer is the modern spelling of two Anglo-Saxon words, heah-fer meaning "high-ox." It probably got that name because a heifer seems to stand high on her legs compared to a grown cow.
